Services available to our Seniors

Geri Fit exercise classes will be held on Monday and Wednesday each week at 11 AM. On those days participants are invited to stay for lunch and mentor with our summer lunch kids, visit, read, play games.

On Thursdays, we will have cross generational programming with the seniors and kids, lunch, reading, card games, and BINGO. We are still providing Grab ‘n Go meals at 11:30 at the back door for those who would rather do that. Call 757-2151 to reserve a grab ‘n go meal.

It is a lot of fun for the kids and the seniors to interact. We hope you will join us.

JULY—FOCUS ON READING!

EARN BRAG TAGS FOR BOOKS YOU READ AND RETURN IN JULY! (JULY 1-31)

1. Children ages 1-7 earn a tag for every 3 books you listen to or read during July!
2. Children ages 8-12 earn a tag for every JF or non-fiction book you READ during July!
3. Get tags at the children's circulation desk. They will get one chain and then they can put their tags on that chain, see how many you can collect this month by reading and/or listening to book (depending on your age)
4. In June the older kids earned tags for attending camps, but in July our focus is on earning tags by READING. We challenge you to see how many tags YOU can earn by reading books this month! Get Busy READING!

ADULT SUMMER READING!

Adult Summer Reading Prize Baskets! This year we did something different. We purchased items from local businesses and made baskets.
Each book, magazine or audio book that you read or listen to between June 1 and August 31st, will get you a ticket, you can choose which basket you want to put your tickets in or spread them out. You may ONLY win one basket! We have a basket from Hook N Deals Baitshop, Frankie's Liquor, Stainbrook's, Therapeutic Massage, Beauty on Broadway, and a Instant Pot basket. We may be getting one more. So get busy reading
