As 2022 ends...How can YOU help YOUR Library?

2022 has been a busy year at the library. Things returned to more normal and we hosted a lot of programs and events. We have been asked several times if there is anything you can do to help the library. Well as the year ends, We have a “Giving Tuesday” link on Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/donate/2340002679498658/> that you can make donations for the lunch program or you can drop off tax deductible donations (Friends of Library is a 501c3). You can support the Friends of Library Christmas raffle which will be on display through 4:45 PM on Dec. 11. Winners will be announced at 4:45 during Christmas on Broadway. You can buy tickets for items or donate items for the raffle. Another way to support us is to attend the dinner in the Great Room on Dec. 11 and give a FREE WILL DONATION for a meal. The lunch program is not funded by tax dollars, it is totally funded by donations from folks who believe in this program, and a occasional grant that we get (like the MFA that bought us reusable to-go containers). So as you are wrapping up the year, please keep the Friends of Library Lunch program in mind for year end giving.

Just a few of the Christmas Raffle Items You Might Win this year!

 We are planning our 3rd Home School Day at Library for Wednesday, Dec. 14th at 10 AM. We need you to sign up....so we know how many of each age group, and how many we are going to feed that day, and how many craft supplies we will need. We will do some STEM stuff and Karla and Aimee with Extension will be here for an activity. Plan on joining us!

What is VIRTUAL STORY TIME? Every Monday, Wednesday, & Friday at 9:30, the library hosts a story time on Facebook Live with Miss Janet. This is so your children can connect with the library even if they can't be there. Craft packs will be available to go along with story times. Call and reserve yours!

Join us on Friday, Dec. 23 at 9 AM as we bring local author Carissa Shillito to share her book Innis and Ernest with our children. She will have copies of the book available to purchase that day if anyone needs a last minute present. Following book reading we will have brunch with Santa, food, pictures, crafts and games. Mark your calendar and plan to attend.
