Kansas Music History

What is it like to be a musician from Kansas and what can their music tell us about time and place? Using music and storytelling, this presentation explores informal music traditions, styles, and musicians from Territorial Kansas up through the age of the radio, and concludes with a demonstration of various instruments and music from early 19th and 20th century Kansas. Presented by Derrick Doty .Library District #2 of Linn County—La Cygne Senior Lunch program will host Derrick Doty for a presentation and discussion of “Kansas Music History,” on Tuesday Oct. 7th 12:30 PM in the Great Room at La Cygne Library. Members of the community are invited to attend this free program! Contact Janet Reynolds at 913-757-2151 for more information. The program is made possible by Humanities Kansas. Join us for lunch at noon and stay for the program at 12:30. No charge.

Ask a Question, Save a Life!

Southeast Kansas Mental Health Center, in partnership with Healthy Congregations, LaCygne United Methodist Church, Prairie View Educational Foundation, and Library District #2 of Linn County invites you to join us to become a certified QPR Gatekeeper.

QPR is a lifesaving, evidence-based suicide awareness and prevention training that teaches you how to recognize the warning signs of a suicide crisis and how to 'Question. Persuade. Refer.' someone to help. The goal of the QPR program is to increase community partners' knowledge of suicide, gain confidence, increase comfort levels, and know how and when to intervene and provide referrals. Suicide impacts the lives of so many...come learn how to start the conversation and get those in crisis the help they need to stay alive.

Registration is required as a meal is provided for everyone who attends!
 (Must be 16 and over) To register, contact:
 Angie Smith Phone: (620) 212-4404 or Email: adsmith@sekmhc.org
